Magali Katra is an American/Lebanese artist, born in Beirut.

Having grown up in a family of haute couture designers, Katra was immersed from a young age in the world of elegance, design, fabrics, and attention to detail.

Katra holds a Master's degree in Visual Arts from the Lebanese Academy of Fine Arts in Beirut and continued her studies at the National School of Fine Arts in Paris (Ecole nationale supérieure des beaux arts) and the Duperré Higher School of Applied Arts in Paris (Ecole Nationale Supérieure Duperré). She furthered her education with a Master's in Arts Management from the Higher School of Business in Beirut.

Katra has 25 years of production under her belt.

Her work has been featured in several galleries, locally and internationally, with representation in Paris, Geneva, Amsterdam, and the United States.

She has numerous solo, and group shows to her credit in the Middle East, Europe, and the USA.

Katra is a curious soul, brimming with energy and above all, passion, not limiting herself to her painting domain. Her love for encounters regularly leads her to engage in collaborations for high-quality, sometimes extravagant artistic projects, always conveying her vibrant spirit and expanded sense of graphical rhythm.

ARTISTIC PHILOSOPHY

Fraction of Life | 2024
210x200
Acrylic on Canvas

Katra possesses a painting style that is a true explosion of elegance and movement, a visual poetry overflowing with energy and vivacity, with a distinctive signature style. Her work has charmed several collectors internationally from the very beginning.

In her pieces, the artist addresses the contemporary human emotions and relationships that drive us.

Each of her works highlights the various human identities and the authenticity that characterizes them. Through bold graphical lines and assertive poses, she depicts individuals with a fluid grace, creating compositions that captivate and engage the viewer.

Every component of her canvas holds a message correlated with the explored theme.

She works with inks and acrylics in a very spontaneous brushstroke without prior sketches. Along the significant layering of white and colors that she mixes. Focusing on graphical rhythm, interesting composition and fluidity.

Katra's art is all about themes and concerns that people can relate to, and her interpretation, approach and signature is distinct with a suggested positivity and aesthetics. Katra insist on keeping her paintings vibrating with thorough graphical lines while remaining fluid.

Her Art translates her love for People, it starts and ends with them!
